PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Members

As you may know we have recently returned from a great trip to England, to see our daughter and her family and then to Morocco, a very interesting country.

Since returning we have attended a number of Probud functions, including a very enjoyable dinner at The Hills Garden restaurant in North Kellyville on Wednesday night.

October is Probud Month and it is a timely reminder for members to take advantage of the many activities our club offers. Spring is here so it is the right time to get out and enjoy yourself. We will be celebrating Probud month with a birthday cake at this month's meeting.

Much of this month's Committee meeting was taken up in the planning for the November Christmas meeting at the Harvey Lowe pavilion. Janet has done a great job in getting this underway with only a few things left to arrange. We also discussed the need to find another accounting package for the Treasurer as the current one will cease to be supported from the end of November. As is usual at this time of the year, we discussed succession planning so if anyone is interested in assisting with the management of the club, please see me at the next meeting.

We have heard a rumour that one of the Probud clubs in the area may be closing but cannot confirm it, so if anyone has any information on that please let me know. We would welcome any Probud members in that situation to enjoy our Friendship Fun and Fellowship.

I look forward to seeing you all at the October meeting.

Stuart Hutton

GUEST SPEAKERS

Nicholas Gleeson, an adventurer and author, joined us to talk about his extraordinary life.

We were totally mesmerised, entertained and inspired by Nicholas who ran us through a full range of human emotions.

Becoming blind at seven through an accident, Nicholas continually challenged himself through school and University and went on to live a life of adventure and sport. He has competed in marathons in New York and Durban, has represented Australia in blind cricket, climbed some of the world's highest mountains and trekked across deserts.

Nicholas has been an Australian Para-Olympian. He is an advocate for people with a disability. Nicholas' aim in life is to help everyone to cope with whatever challenges confront any one of us in life.

Nicholas is an amazing, humble man and gifted speaker who lives life to the full. He was accompanied by his faithful seeing-eye-dog Jarvis.

Our final speaker for this year will be Bill Phippen who is a civil engineer and later in his career has moved into history and engineering heritage.

He has published 5 books, won many awards, including in 2010 NSW Senior Volunteer and also in 2013 Engineers Australia included him in their list of 100 Most Influential Engineers in the country.

Bill was awarded an Order of Australia Medal in 2013 for service to people with disability through the charity Technical Aid to the Disabled.

His current project is preparing for the Centenary Celebration of the Sydney Harbour Bridge opening in 2032.

Bill's talk will centre on a workmate of John Bradfield, who is an unsung and little-known hero, who played a vital role in the building of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

EVENTS

ROAD TRIP

After an enjoyable stop for lunch in Leura, we headed to Oberon for the next 2 nights, and were made to feel most welcome by the motel owners, Paul and Kavi. We explored the surrounds of Oberon and spent time wandering the beautiful Mayfield Gardens where the displays of many different varieties of daffodils and magnolias made a magnificent display.

On our way to Mudgee, we stopped at historic Abercrombie house in Bathurst for morning tea and a tour. The home itself exudes so much old-world charm and Christopher, the owner, had many interesting stories to tell of the property's past history and his family's involvement in the extensive restoration, which is still ongoing. Once in Mudgee, some took their time to explore the many wineries or travelled to nearby locations such as Gulgong and Millthorpe and recounted their day when we gathered for dinner in the evening.

On the way home Rylstone was a popular stop for coffee and a stroll around the shops in the quaint village. What an enjoyable way to spend a week with a great group of Probus friends.

MONTHLY ACTIVITIES REPORT

In Bruce's absence, here are a few notes on the Club's activities for the month.

Since the last Newsletter many members embarked on the road trip to Oberon, Mudgee and beyond. I have heard that it was a great success and that everyone enjoyed their taste of the country air. I don't know anything more as I believe "what goes on tour, stays on tour"!

I was brought up to date with the month's activities at the Activity Leaders meeting this week and was delighted to see that the calendars remain full and that the Movie Group has returned. I have also noted that the attendance at Games has continued to increase, along with good numbers at Travel and Dinner.

A reminder that the bookings and payment for the upcoming Harbour Cruise and Christmas Lunch at the Castle Hill Country Club are due now so don't miss out.

COMPUTER TRAINING

Manfred Kneitel
Computer Training Leader

Note: Computer Training is held as required at 65 Gilbert Road, Castle Hill.

CRAFT

Denise Ward
Craft Leader

Note: The Craft group meets monthly on the 3rd Tuesday.

GAMES

8 members attended a fun morning at Games last Wednesday, playing Scrabble, Sequence and Uno.

Next month, as I will be away, Caz Gallagher will be looking after Games.

Denise Ward
Games Leader

Note: The Games group meets monthly on the 3rd Wednesday at Baulkham Hills Sports Club

GENEALOGY

The Genealogy Group will be conducting an excursion to St James Church, Sydney on Monday, 3rd December

Peter O'Brien
Genealogy Leader

Note: The Genealogy group meets monthly on the 1st Monday at Castle Hill RSL Club.

MOVIES

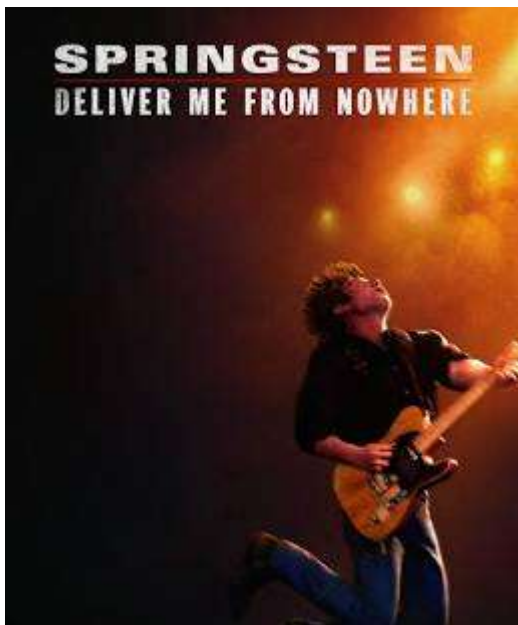

Hello Members, where were you as you missed out on a good movie. “Downton Abbey the Final Chapter” was attended by five members including me, where we were taken back to the 1930’s charm and grandeur of that period.

The next movie will be the Friday after our meeting in October on 31/10/25 and we will meet at Event Cinemas at Castle Towers at 9.30am. The movie, which I will confirm, is the new Bruce Springsteen biography, called “Deliver Me from Nowhere”, starring Jeremy Allen White.

The movie is about Bruce Springsteen’s journey, crafting his 1982 album Nebraska, which emerged as he recorded Born in the USA with E Street. It is based on Warren Zane’s book.

Hope to see you all at the movies.

Tracy Mills
Movies Group Leader

Note: The Movies group meets monthly on the 4th Friday at Event Cinemas, Castle Hill.

BOWLS

There were nine enthusiastic bowlers bowled up to Castle Hill Bowls Club on the 3rd October. It was an enjoyable morning and while it is supposed to be a competition we make sure it is a lot of fun.

Come and join us.

You don't have to be a bowler, Hazel will give you lessons and you will be part of the group in no time.

We are hoping that we will be able to enjoy the new covered green which would mean we can play rain, hail or shine and particularly stay out of the hot sun on those really hot days.

WINE APPRECIATION

Our last Wine Night was well attended in Manfred's home.

Manfred was away but we were welcomed by his house-sitter Lauren, Ann & Graham Osborn's granddaughter, and of course the "lady" of the house Bella!!

The theme of the evening was "a wine with a story".

Lots of stories were told & what was said in Gilbert Rd stays in Gilbert Rd!!!

We welcomed a new member, Joy, & pleased to see John Miles up & about again.

Our next meeting will be on Friday November 28th & the theme will be Christmas.

Cheers

A POEM FROM KEN DAVIES

The Green Eye Of The Little Yellow God

J Milton Hayes 1884-1940

There's a one-eyed yellow idol to the north of Khatmandu,
There's a little marble cross below the town;
There's a broken-hearted woman tends the grave of Mad Carew,
And the Yellow God forever gazes down.

He was known as "Mad Carew" by the subs at Khatmandu,
He was hotter than they felt inclined to tell;
But for all his foolish pranks, he was worshipped in the ranks,
And the Colonel's daughter smiled on him as well.

He had loved her all along, with a passion of the strong,
The fact that she loved him was plain to all.
She was nearly twenty-one and arrangements had begun
To celebrate her birthday with a ball.

He wrote to ask what present she would like from Mad Carew;
They met next day as he dismissed a squad;
And jestingly she told him then that nothing else would do
But the green eye of the little Yellow God.

On the night before the dance, Mad Carew seemed in a trance,
And they chaffed him as they puffed at their cigars:
But for once he failed to smile, and he sat alone awhile,
Then went out into the night beneath the stars.

He returned before the dawn, with his shirt and tunic torn,
And a gash across his temple dripping red;
He was patched up right away, and he slept through all the day,
And the Colonel's daughter watched beside his bed.

He woke at last and asked if they could send his tunic through;
She brought it, and he thanked her with a nod;
He bade her search the pocket saying "That's from Mad Carew,"
And she found the little green eye of the god.

She upbraided poor Carew in the way that women do,
Though both her eyes were strangely hot and wet;
But she wouldn't take the stone and Mad Carew was left alone
With the jewel that he'd chanced his life to get.

When the ball was at its height, on that still and tropic night,
She thought of him and hurried to his room;
As she crossed the barrack square she could hear the dreamy air
Of a waltz tune softly stealing thro' the gloom.

His door was open wide, with silver moonlight shining through;
The place was wet and slipp'ry where she trod;
An ugly knife lay buried in the heart of Mad Carew,
'Twas the "Vengeance of the Little Yellow God."

There's a one-eyed yellow idol to the north of Khatmandu,
There's a little marble cross below the town;
There's a broken-hearted woman tends the grave of Mad Carew,
And the Yellow God forever gazes down.

J. Milton Hayes was a British poet whose work continues to resonate with audiences today, particularly his iconic poem "The Green Eye of the Little Yellow God." This piece, with its compelling narrative and rhythmic cadence, cemented Hayes's place in popular culture and continues to be widely recited and anthologized.

Hayes's work falls within the realm of narrative poetry, a style that was particularly popular in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Like his contemporaries, Rudyard Kipling and Robert W. Service, Hayes favoured strong rhythms and rhyme schemes that lent themselves to memorization and recitation. His poems often tell compelling stories, drawing the reader into richly imagined scenes and dramatic situations.

"The Green Eye of the Little Yellow God" exemplifies the hallmarks of Hayes's style: vivid imagery, exotic settings, and suspenseful storytelling. The poem's enduring popularity speaks to its ability to transport readers and listeners to another time and place, captivated by the allure of adventure and the power of evocative language.

BUS, TRAIN & FERRY 🚌 🚗 🚂 🚆 🚢

The bus train and ferry group embarked on a beautiful excursion to Watsons Bay on a bright sunny day on 8 October 2025.

We met at Circular Quay and arrived at Watsons Bay by ferry and then took a walk around the area having a relaxing cup of coffee at a local cafe.

Next the group of seven continued walking around the bay until we finally came back to Doyles at Watsons Bay and seated ourselves in a beautiful setting overlooking the waterfront. We all enjoyed the seafood meal including oysters, beer-battered fish, fish tacos and delicious salads.

At the end of the day, we got back on the ferry while enjoying the beautiful sunshine and returned to Circular Quay.

It was a pleasant afternoon while we all enjoyed each other's company.

DINNER GROUP

Twenty-nine members attended the October dinner at The Hills Garden Chinese Restaurant in North Kellyville. Most people agreed the food was really delicious and the banquet good value for money – there were even leftovers for doggy bags! We all stayed on until after 9pm, so it was a fun night.

The next dinner will be on Tuesday 18th November at The Hills Club at Baulkham Hills - details will be emailed to the Dinner Group.

Picnics are always a favourite and we hope to have one at Heritage Park in December, depending on the weather.

GARDEN CHAT

The Garden Chat group had a lovely meeting at Herbs and Roses for our October meeting.

Margaret thanked Ann and asked her pass on our thanks to John for his wonderful presentation on orchids, it was enjoyed by everyone.

Margaret also presented us all with a water tester and had photos of various ways to display plants in colourful pots, in wall gardens, in containers and suitcases of various sizes and shapes. Lovely ways to be inventive.

Ann also mentioned her trip to a waratah farm and how beautiful they were. A discussion ensued and a suggestion we may look at a visit with lunch afterwards.

We then all showed and described our favourite place in the garden and why it was so special. Lots of interesting stories and lots of colour.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday 6th November. We will meet at 10.00am at Salt Cafe in Galston for morning tea, and then, wander across the road to visit Mark at the Nursery where he will give us a presentation. We will get there around 10.45am.

Also don't forget our Christmas lunch at Trevi's on the 4th December.

Some light reading from John Withers to lighten your day.

Living on earth is expensive, but it does include a free trip around the sun every year.

How long a minute is, depends on which side of the bathroom door you are on.

Birthdays are good for you. The more you have, the longer you live.

Happiness comes through doors you didn't even know you left open.

Ever notice that the people who are late are often much jollier than the people who have to wait for them.

Most of us go to our grave with our music still inside us.

If Wal-Mart is lowering prices every day, how come nothing is free yet?

Some mistakes are too much fun to make only once.

Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened.

A man ran home from work, pulled his wife into the bedroom and pulled the blankets over them.

She was shocked, as he hadn't done that for twenty years. Then the husband said: "Look! My new watch glows in the dark!"

We could learn a lot from crayons: Some are sharp, some are dull, some have weird names, and all are different colours – but they all exist in the same box.

A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.

Working for God on earth does not pay much, but His Retirement plan is out of this world.

Have an awesome day and know that someone who thinks you're great thought about you today – and that person was me!

Keep a smile on your face and a song in your heart. A smile, is a sign of joy.

A hug, is a sign of love.

A laugh, is a sign of happiness.

And a friend like me? Well that's just a sign of good taste.

COFFEE & CHAT

Coffee n Chat held on Tuesday, October 7, at Victoria Avenue Cafe, Castle Hill was very well attended.

We had 21 ladies present. Lots of conversation and laughter taking place. I'm sure everyone who attended had a very pleasant morning.

Our next Coffee n Chat will be held once again at Victoria Avenue Cafe, Home Co. Castle Hill, November 4 at 10am.

Elizabeth Byrum
Coffee & Chat Leader

Note: Coffee & Chat is held monthly on the 1st Tuesday.

TABLE OF KNOWLEDGE

The Table of Knowledge met again this month. We welcomed a first-time visitor who said he would be back (he is on my list and he knows that it will take a lot for his name to be removed).

If you would like me to add your name to my list, please see me at the next meeting. You are guaranteed a warm welcome and/or roasting, and we know that you will fit right in!

LUNCH

PROBUS LUNCH GROUP TREVI LUNCH

On Thursday 25 September, 24 members enjoyed either one, or two course meals at Trevi restaurant, Lakeside, Norwest.

As the menu had an offer of one, two or three courses at a special lunch price, some members had an entrée and main, and some had an entrée and dessert while others only had a main meal. Despite the variation of meals, they were all very well presented and delicious.

The weather was a beautiful spring day and the views of the lake made the gathering most enjoyable.

We are looking forward to our lunch in October, which will be at The Fiddler, Rouse Hill. A special invitation will be sent out shortly.

Thank you to everyone who supports our lunches. We always have a lovely time and we welcome new members.

BOOK CLUB # 1

Book club number one held their meeting last week where we discussed our choice for this month of HIDDEN NATURE by Nora Roberts.

It was a good meeting with different discussions on how we felt about this book. Some thought it was only average. It was a little too predictable .

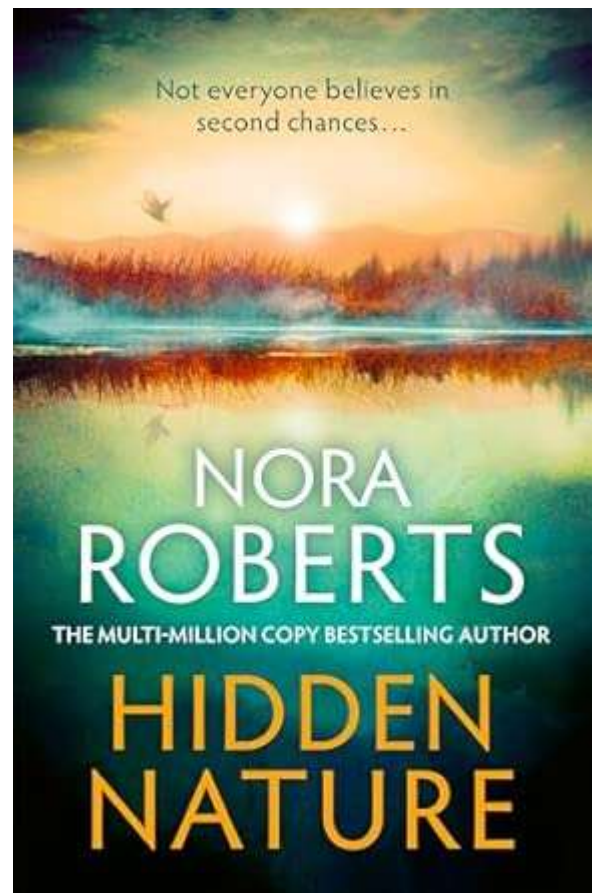

Once again, we had an enjoyable book club meeting.

Our choice for next month is a different style of reading altogether, as we are doing a classic Wuthering Heights. I hope we all enjoy this read and we'll see you at the next month's meeting.

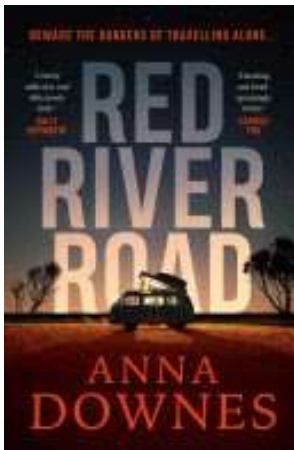

Keep on reading, cheers Caz 📖📖📖

Note: Book Club No. 1 is held monthly on the 2nd Thursday.

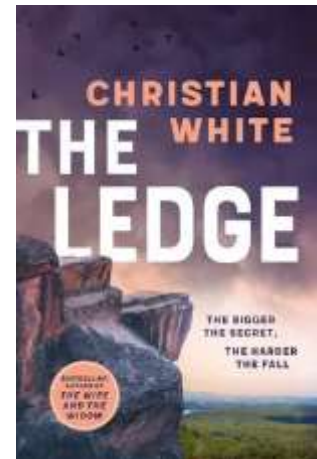

BOOK CLUB # 2

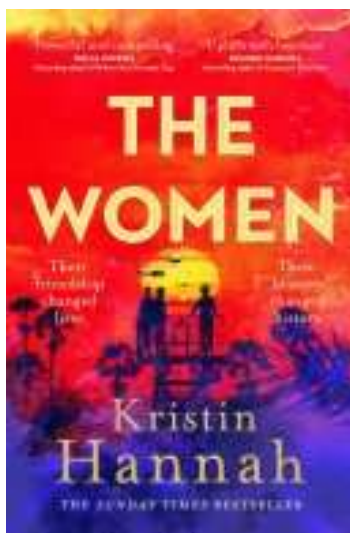

It was great to see so many readers at this month's Book Club 2 meeting and a special welcome back to Joy.

Everyone, but one, enjoyed the psychological thriller "Red River Road" by Ann Downes as the characters were well developed, the scenery well described, and it finished with an ending you didn't expect.

Christian White's novel "The Ledge" is the book nominated for November and Kristen Hannah's "The Women" is for December's meeting, pre-Christmas lunch.

WALKING

Our September Walk took place on Friday the 26th. The day started with a beautiful trip across the harbour to Taronga Zoo along with holiday makers and children on holidays.

Our captain on the day took us on a scenic tour around Fort Denison then Farm Cove stopping in the middle of the harbour to allow everyone on board to take pictures of the Opera House and the Bridge.

What a great gesture!!

The walk turned out to be relatively easy with winding tracks through the bush with the harbour always on our right. The weather was great and as we were in no hurry we had coffee at Taronga quay, then lunch at Clifton Gardens / Chowder Bay, of course mixed in with some walking. In total it turned out to be about 7 1/2 - 8 km or about 16,500 steps on my app.

Although we did this walk with Jim years ago it was good to revisit and introduce the walk to a new set of walkers.

The next scheduled walk will be on Friday the 31st of October. I plan to do the Sculptures by the Sea again as it has just received funding from the government, starting mid Oct and running till the 3rd of Nov. This event has been suggested by a number of people so it shows there is interest in this event. Full details will be forwarded to everyone on the walking group list soon.

Should you want to do this walk or any other that we have done on your own, just let me know and I will forward the walks details to you.

Until then happy walking and enjoy the photos from our day out

TRAVEL DISCUSSION

Due to the Trip to Oberon and Mudgee there was not a Travel Discussion meeting in September.

The next Travel Discussion will be on Monday 20 October at 10am at the Bull and Bush Hotel on the corner of Seven Hills Rd and Windsor Rd, Baulkham Hills.

As usual it would be great to hear about any trips you've been on, or that you've been planning, as well as any recommendations you may have for others wanting to do a similar trip. Also, hearing about any funny or unexpected things that might have happened to you while you were away somewhere is always fun.

You might also like to bring along an object from somewhere you've travelled to for others to guess where it might be from or what it is. Also, for some fun, feel free to bring along a picture of something or somewhere in the world (whether you've been there or not) for people to guess what it is or perhaps where it is. Edible prizes for the right answers.

Peter Brown
Travel Leader

Note: The Travel Discussion is held monthly at 10.00 am on the 3rd Monday at Bull & Bush Hotel, Baulkham Hills.

Late last month we attended our final show for this group's 2025 season, "Here You Come Again". At the time of booking it was an 'unknown' to me other than being a musical comedy focussed on Dolly Parton.

I was feeling a little unsure initially, however as it progressed, I found myself enjoying it more. To those members who sent thank you emails next day, I thank you!

"Here we Come Again"

At our September meeting registrations opened for "Pretty Woman" I must finalise and pay before Christmas, so if interested in this musical see me next week to avoid missing out. Details are on the website and below.

Date: Wed, 18th March, 2026 (1 pm matinee)

Venue: Sydney's Theatre Royal,

Tickets: $95 includes "A" res seat, concession + transaction fee.

Payment due: EFT to clubs account prior to December 14th 2025.

This past couple of years have seen a significant drop in attendance and rising production costs haven't helped, here's looking forward to a better 2026.

To date I also have blocked seating for "Anastasia" in May and I await group availability, dates and prices from Sydney Opera House re "My Fair Lady" Sep/Oct 2026. (We saw this in 2017; it was absolutely brilliant, costumes amazing; well worth seeing again for long time members). And those new members it's one not to miss.

Don't forget about our wonderful Castle Hill Players as soon as the Subscription booklets come out our same page group will be endeavouring to get together for Sunday afternoons.
