WALKS

Ian Duffield & Margaret Feltham

February Walk with Ian:

Our next walk is set for Thursday 5 February. Walkers should meet at 9.30am in front of the large indicator structure on the concourse to the interstate and country trains at Central station. We will then catch the light rail to Dulwich Hill where our walk begins. It is true that the metro to Sydenham and a bus to Dulwich Hill would take less time, but the light rail avoids changing over and will follow a route new to many of us.

We plan on following the recently opened "Greenway" walk from Dulwich Hill to Iron Cove. This is an easy, entirely flat, walkway through suburbia which is about 6kms in length. The majority of the walk is tree lined. The second half is reminiscent of the path beside Cook's River (August walk). For those wishing to have lunch, the Abbotsford Rowing Club has a pleasant bistro which overlooks Iron Cove. There are picnic facilities nearing the end of the walk, but no toilet facilities nearby. After lunch, we need to walk for about a kilometre to Leichhardt light rail station to catch the light rail back to Central.

Walkers should wear sturdy shoes and bring a hat, sunscreen, insect repellent, wet weather gear, water, a snack for morning tea and a picnic lunch, if applicable. It is also essential that walkers bring with them any medications which they may need on the walk.

February WOW Walk with Margaret:

Our next walk is on Thursday 13 February. We will meet at Circular Quay Wharf 5 at 9.35am. We will travel by ferry to The Zoo wharf for a coffee break then walk to Bradley's Head along the track and boardwalk.

There are a few steps but no stairs. It's a shady walk of about 1.5 kms. Then we walk back to the ferry. There is a beautiful view of the Harbour where we can enjoy a picnic snack and watch the world go by.

Bring a hat, blockout, a snack (maybe lunch), and a drink Let's start the new year of exploring our great city. You can get your feet wet on the little beach so bring a hand towel to dry feet if intending to paddle. Let me know if you intend to come. Hope you do join us.
