

WHAT'S IT LIKE TO BE A MEMBER OF PROBUS CHRISTMAS A TIME FOR REFLECTION

Being a member of Probus is a bit like discovering a secret society - only instead of secret handshakes, we greet each other with coffee, conversation, and the occasional enthusiastic hug. You join thinking you'll attend a meeting or two... and before you know it, your calendar looks like you've been hired as a full-time social butterfly. Outings, lunches, guest speakers, walks, day trips, overnight adventures - Probus members often find themselves needing a rest day just to recover from all the "relaxing" they've been doing.

At its heart, Probus is all about fun and friendship. It's a place where you meet people who somehow manage to feel like old friends from the moment you shake hands. Conversations start easily, laughter flows quickly, and it doesn't take long before someone says, "Hang on - you know them too? What a small world!" That's the magic of Probus: no matter where you sit, you're always among friends. And the activities? There's something for everyone. Scenic walks for those who enjoy nature, trips and tours for the curious, lunches for the food-lovers, card days for the competitive, and talks for the forever-young lifelong learners. Even the bus trips have their charm - especially the moment everyone settles in, snacks at the ready, and one member inevitably declares themselves the unofficial tour photographer.

Of course, not everything runs strictly to plan. Someone will always misplace their hat, another will insist the bakery we passed three towns back had the best vanilla slice in Australia, and at least one person will try to convince the group that the map is wrong. But these little moments are exactly what make the memories - and the laughter - so infectious.

What truly makes Probus special is the community spirit. Members look out for one another, lend a hand when needed, share stories, share rides, share recipes, and most importantly, share time. In a world that often rushes by, Probus is a reminder that life is richer when enjoyed together.

Being part of Probus means having a place to belong, people to laugh with, and friends to count on. It's fun, it's friendship, and it's full of moments that brighten the week—and stay with you long after the outing ends.

This is my reflection. What is yours.?

PICNIC IN THE PARK DECEMBER 12

On Friday 12 December, we will be hosting a relaxed and social "Picnic in the Park" afternoon. The gathering will take place at Phoenix Park, just opposite the café, so it's easy to find and a lovely spot to spend a few hours outdoors. This will be a simple, casual BYO get-together—please bring along your own food, drinks, table, and chairs, and settle in for a comfortable afternoon. Pack a favourite snack, a sandwich, or even something to share if you'd like. The aim of the day is to enjoy good company, fresh air, and friendly conversation. It will be a wonderful opportunity to catch up with fellow members, meet new friends, and relax before the Christmas rush begins. We hope to see many of you there to make it a cheerful and memorable afternoon. If you are new to our Probuss Club this is an excellent way to meet other members. Maybe you may put on a bit of Christmas Colour
