HAZELWOOD PARK

Did you know that Hazelwood Park has State Heritage Significance? Hazelwood Park is a portion of the original Hazelwood Park Estate which was owned by the Clark family 1853–1914. During their ownership they allowed the general public to use the area for recreational purposes and it became known as Clark's Paddock. That use was formalised when the family offered to sell it to the South Australian Government provided that it remained a park, and the Government purchased it in 1914.

In 1915 it was dedicated as a National Pleasure Resort under the National Pleasure Resorts Act 1914, one of the first four places to be dedicated. The Park is significant for being an early National Pleasure Resort and for its association with the Clark family who were notable for their involvement in public life.

The Burnside Council sought to acquire the park from the State Government, and eventually acquired it in May 1963 after negotiations with the Premier, Sir Thomas Playford. As part of the acquisition, the Burnside Council was to retain the name 'Hazelwood' and was to maintain the park at a level satisfactory to the State Government.

In 1966, after much political wrangling, a 3-pool swimming centre opened at Hazelwood Park. It was named after Mayor George Bolton who had been the leading voice in advocating its construction.

Don't be mad at lazy people. They didn't do anything!

The latest instruction manual for home renovators -
"How to use a ladder - a step -by- step guide".

I told myself that I should stop drinking, but I'm not about to listen to a drunk who talks to themself.

I hired a handyman and gave him a list. When I got home, only items 1, 3 and 5 were done. Turns out he only does odd jobs.

Q: Why do the French eat snails?

A: They don't like fast food.
