DECEMBER SPEAKER REVIEW

Our speaker in December was Jo Brown, aged care advocate from Indee. Jo provided information about the new aged care reforms which came in 1 November 2025.

The reforms are very complex and costs have increased considerably. She impressed on us the need to be informed and prepared, her motto being prepare well and age well.

Everyone's circumstances are different so there isn't a one size fits all and she advised that people should seek professional advice offered by herself or others.

The speaker for January meeting is TBC

Trivia

The next Trivia night will be on Wednesday 14 January at Club Thirroul.

New members are always welcome. Please call or text Anne Haine on 0409 067 722 if you'd like to join us.

You may also like to have a look at <https://www.facebook.com/InnQUIZitiveTrivia/> in the week of 14 January for some clues to that week's questions.

OUTINGS

Hi Everyone,
Another year is about to begin, and after Christmas and New Year we will be taking a break from the day outings for a short while. Cheryl and I are heading south from mid-January to Melbourne, before "going overseas" to Tasmania until early March - so no day outings till after that.

We are working on an outing for just after we return, but it is yet to be approved. Stay tuned!

If anyone has suggestions for next year, please let us know.

Cheryl and Paul

MATINEE MOB

On Wednesday, December 10, 22 of us went to see Pretty Woman at the Theatre Royal and we loved it! It was definitely a feelgood show. Great characters, singing, dancing, and staging. At the end, they had us on our feet at the end clapping along and singing the song.

My aim is for a group of us to go to a major theatrical production once every quarter. For 2026 we have already booked seats for our "first responders" to see "The Great Gatsby" - Jazz Ballet in February, "Cluedo" - the who dunnit comedy drama in April, and the "My Fair Lady" Musical in September! But - all is not lost if you want to join us on the day for the same shows, then you can buy your own tickets online and then contact me to let me know your seat numbers and I will include you in the group emails about the travel arrangements. BOATHOUSE REVIEW – DECEMBER

Thirty members attended the Christmas Drinks at the Boathouse in North Wollongong. What a fabulous night it was, for our final event of the year. Merry Christmas to all and let's catch up again in the New Year.

SUMMERTIME SUNDAY SIPPERS

Sunday Sippers on December 28 was a bright but breezy affair with 15 of us turning up for a gathering on the deck.

The ones with their backs to the sea breeze created a bit of a windbreak for those sitting opposite, which was appreciated.

It was a good catch-up, sharing our Christmas Day stories with or without our families.

While the Surf Club is open every Sunday for drinks from 4pm we meet there as a TPC Event on the last Sunday (usually!) of each month, so the next one is on Sunday, January 25.
