LIFE OF RILEY

We enjoyed the trip to Jindabyne back in 2021 so much that, by popular demand, we are returning for another visit for 6 days (5 nights) from 15th to 20th February 2026.

We need at least 30 passengers before we can run this trip—so Book today

BOOKINGS CLOSE 17TH JULY

I was visiting my daughter last night when I asked if I could borrow a newspaper.

"This is the 21st century" she said, "We don't waste money on newspapers. -Here, use my iPad."

I can tell you this... that fly never knew what hit him.....

On the Sick List ?

We would like to wish members, spouses and partners, who are not well, a speedy recovery.

A FROG, A BANK AND A LOAN

A frog goes into a bank and approaches the teller. He can see from her nameplate that the teller's name is Patricia Whack. So he says, "Ms. Whack, I'd like to get a loan to buy a boat and go on a long vacation."

Patti looks at the frog in disbelief and asks how much he wants to borrow.

The frog says $30,000.

The teller asks his name and the frog says that his name is Kermit Jagger, his dad is Mick Jagger, and that it's OK, he knows the bank manager.

Patti explains that $30,000 is a substantial amount of money and that he will need to secure some collateral against the loan. She asks if he has anything he can use as collateral.

The frog says, "Sure. I have this," and produces a tiny pink porcelain elephant, about half an inch tall, bright pink and perfectly formed.

Very confused, Patti explains that she'll have to consult with the manager and disappears into a back office.

She finds the manager and says

"There's a frog called Kermit Jagger out there who claims to know you and wants to borrow $30,000. He wants to use this as collateral." She holds up the tiny pink elephant. "I mean, what the heck is this?"

The bank manager looks back at her and says: "It's a knick knack, Patti Whack. Give the frog a loan. His old man's a Rolling Stone."
