Exclusive to you: $50 e-gift card reward^

Dear Probian

Staying socially active is at the heart of the Probus community — whether it's catching up with friends, attending club outings, or sharing stories over a cup of coffee. But even mild hearing changes can make conversations harder to follow, leading to missed moments and less confidence in social settings.

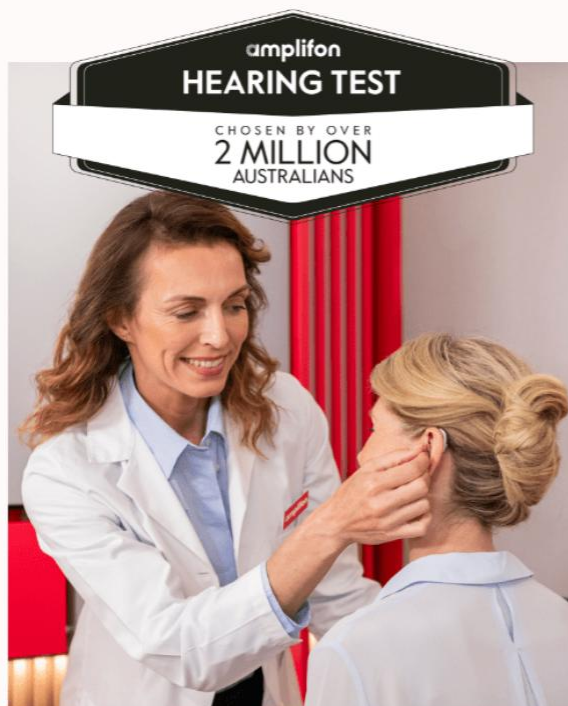

Regular hearing checks are an important part of staying connected and fully engaged in the activities you love. With Amplifon, you can receive a free* hearing test and get rewarded, helping you stay confident and involved in every chat, laugh, and conversation.

So why wait? Turn your hearing check into a social outing — bring a fellow Probus friend along, make a morning of it, and enjoy a little reward for the holiday season. Use your $50 voucher at over 150+ retailers in-store or online.
