Trips and Activities

Come from Away Albury Theatre Company Come From Away is the uplifting and heart-warming musical that tells the story of 7,000 airline passengers stranded in the small town of Gander, Newfoundland, in the days following the 9/11 attacks. As the people of Gander welcome the stranded travellers with open arms, lifelong friendships are forged in the most unlikely of circumstances. This internationally acclaimed show, with its soaring score and poignant storytelling captures the remarkable kindness and resilience of humanity in the face of adversity.
