August Highlights

Guest Speaker, John Foumakis, Antiquarian since 1979

John was born in Crete and migrated to Australia in 1960 as 'The Land of Opportunity'. They were very poor, living with 2 families in Whitmore Square. His mother frequently visited the Salvos and paid them with her wonderful cooking. The Salvos were the beginning of John's Apprenticeship and his love of antiques, held a particular fascination with the gramophones where he played and played them when visiting with his mother, still holds that fascination today. Now has one in every room of his house. His collecting started when he used to walk through the Adelaide Parklands finding old bottles in various dumps and anything else he could dig up.
